Request for Administrative Appeal-Parking Citation

I was cited for "Over 72 Hour Parking" while parked in 10-day parking. I called Officer Wilson, who stated there isn't 10-day parking in the Crescent Harbor Parking lot. He informed me that the car had been there since Feb 2nd and I was issued a ticket on Feb 7th. Officer Wilson took my information and said he would investigate the situation, but I haven't heard back from him.

There is 1 row of 10-day parking in the Crescent Harbor Parking lot.

Thank you,

Jennifer Mingo

I was able to ride along with Officer Richard Meunier on Saturday April 5 from 8-10pm.

Prior to going on the road, I asked Officer Meunier about a body camera and he pulled a small voice recorder from his pocket and said this is what we use.

I emailed Chief Baty who explained he'd requested $120k funding last year, this was pulled from the budget request and they were advised to seek a grant which did not work out.

I phoned around Southeast Alaska police departments (and Kodiak too) to find how many had body cams. The results are below. I'd like to begin discussion of this need.
