

Tracie L. Castle

Biographical Information

Tracie L. Castle moved to Sitka in 2020 with her husband, from Fairbanks. Tracie's husband, Josef Castle is a commercial fisherman.

Tracie has been a member of the Moose Lodge for over 4 years and continues to volunteer monetarily and personally for community needs. She is a former American Legion member as well as the VFW.

She owns the business Forget Me Not at the corner of Lake and Lincoln and strives to meet the local as well as the tourism needs. In the wintertime when things in town slow down she loves to put on Stained Glass Classes for the locals to have something creative to do.

Tracie loves her community and would love for all patrons and businesses to thrive and prosper.

Advocacy Statement:

My mission is to ensure a friendly small-town approach to our city through transparency. I will commit to addressing our housing deficit, high cost of living and high energy bills, just to mention a few. I also plan to ensure our Assembly collaborates to build a stronger and more sustainable future for all residents, businesses and guests.
